

Today we're back in the gospel of Matthew.

We're going to hear another parable, a story with a special meaning, that not everyone will understand. This parable is for Jesus' servants. It helps us understand why we serve. The story is about a man who had a Vineyard and he went out to hire some workers for it. He agreed to pay them one denarius. Later he went back and saw more people who had not got any work, he sent them to work in his vineyard and said he would pay them what was right.

This happened 3 more times. At the end of the day he paid everyone the same amount. The people who had worked longest were

CROSS. They thought they deserved more. But Jesus wants to teach us 3 things about God from this story:

1. The Lord gives his servants what is right.

2. The Lord is free to do what he likes.

3. The Lord is really really really kind

We might think we are doing good things for God but he has done far far more for us.
